These shares are transferable, and each share carries with it the forty-two volumes already published, and succeeding volumes to be printed, consisting of original material relating to American History.

EXHIBITIONS.

In commemoration of the centennial of the War of 1812, the Society's collection of prints and broadsides relating to that war were on exhibition from June 1, 1912, to June 30, 1913.

Since September, 1913, through the courtesy of our fellow-member, Mr. Edwin A. Cruikshank, his collection of New York Prints have been placed on exhibition, as a loan exhibit, and with the collection of rare prints of the Society, forms a unique exhibit.

GALLERY OF ART.

Additions to the gallery during the past year were as follows: portraits of Caleb Heathcote, Pierre Van Cortlandt and Gov. William C. Bouck, purchased by the Durr Gallery Fund; also portrait of the late Benjamin B. Sherman, Treasurer of the Society, 1878-1884, presented by his son, Charles A. Sherman. The gallery now contains 1,034 paintings, of which 290 are portraits, and a daguerreotype of the late Valentine Mott, M.D., presented by Mr. Thomas J. Burton.

The collection includes the New York Gallery of Fine Arts, received in 1858; the celebrated Bryan Gallery of Old Masters, presented in 1867, by the late Thomas J. Bryan; the Durr Collection, presented in 1882, by the Executors of the late Louis Durr. The Peter Marié Collection of Miniatures, presented to the Society in 1905. The Isaac J. Greenwood Collection of 405 watercolor drawings of Powder Horns, presented in 1907. A collection of miniatures of the Bryant family and manuscript poems by William Cullen Bryant, presented by Miss Anna R. Fairchild, as a memorial of Julia Sands Bryant, daughter of William Cullen Bryant, and the Audubon Collection of 460 original watercolor drawings, by John James Audubon.

During the month of August, 1913, 252 additional paintings of the old masters were cleaned and are now on exhibition and 79 American portraits were placed in the Library.

A bronze statuette of Daniel Webster by Thomas Ball, Sculptor, 1853, was presented by Miss Katharine Chambers through William G. De Witt.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Livingston Wilson, great-greatgreat-granddaughter of Robert R. Livingston, First Lord of the Manor of Livingston, donated, December 13, 1913, a Bible printed in London, 1683, presented to Robert R. Livingston by his mother, Janet Livingston; the Bible contains his family record, written by him in Dutch with a translation.

To the Museum has been added two canes used by William Hazard and John H. Howland, presented by Howland Pell; several pieces of jewelry, a silver tea set, a small silk tapestry worked in silk by Johannes de Peyster Kuypers Van Zandt, relics of the Sluyter, Kuypers and Van Zandt families, presented by Mrs. John H. Abeel and Miss Johanna Kuypers Sluyter. A metal dressing box used by Lieut. Jonathan Church during the War of 1812, presented by his greatniece, Miss Alice Shipman.

The Art Gallery and Museum are open to the Public daily from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M. and the Library from 9 A.M. to 6 P.M., Sundays excepted; and on holidays from 1 to 5 P.M. excepting Christmas, New Years and Fourth of July. The building is closed during August for cleaning and repairs.

In conclusion the Committee repeats that owing to the congested condition of the present building, the necessity for the erection of the north and south wings has been apparent for some time, in order to properly place on exhibition the paintings and relics now stored for want of space. Each proposed wing of the building could be very properly erected as a Memorial Building to hold the Art and Museum collections, reserving the present building for the Library, and placing the treasures of the Society properly before the Public.
